The Strem Family Travel Awards will consist of 9 $250 awards for attendance at scientific meetings. Up to three awards will be given each term. Applicants must be presenting a talk or poster at the meeting. Applications will be considered during the first week of each term and the meeting to which the grant is used must occur within the next six months. Applicants must have passed the comprehensive examination and can receive this award only one time.

Applications are awarded on a first come/first serve basis.
